R presentatives of conductors and trainmen on the Southern Railway are in conference with President Finley and other officials of the system in Washington seeking an increase in pay and a readjustment of the wage scale. The present scale is anything but uniform, the men claim. Officials of the Sauthern system say they do not regard the sination as critical, and yes orday Presideni Finley istued this statement: "Conferences are now in progress in Washington looking to the adjustment of the wage scale of conductors and trainmen employed on the railways of the scutheset. The Brotherhood of Conductors and Trainmen has suggested a uniform adjustment with the lines in the southern states. The conferences now in progress are for the purpose of seeing whether it is practicable, in view of differing conditions prevailing in different parts of this territory, to ar-give at a feir basis of adjustment by col-Lective action."

As stated in yesterday's G zitte about 25 members of Concord's Lodge, No. 13, A., F. and A. M., of Biltimore, headed by I. T. Cart r, master of that lodge, and accompanied by several of the officers of the grand lodge of Marons in Maryland, arrived here yesterday afternoon. They were met by a delegation representing Alexandria-Washington Lodge of Masons headed by C. H. Callahan, master of the lodge, with whom they boarded special cars for Mount Vernon and placed a wreath on the tomb of Washington. They returned about 5:45 o'clock via bost, and visited Christ Church, which had been kept open through the courtesy of the officials for their convenience. Later they were entertained at a sumptuous dinner at the Hotel Rammel. After dinner under escort of the officers of the lodge, they were conducted to the lodge room and spert sometime in examining the various relice. Daring the meeting interesting speeches were made by Worshipful Master Carter, Past Master Hall and Schley, brother of the admiral, all of Concordis, No. 13. The ceremonies in the lodge, while informal, were impressive, and the singing of "Maryland my Maryland" by the Masonic quartette caught the crowd and elicited considerable enthusissm. After the preliminary ceremonies and speeches, all of which were well received, the visitors witnessed the conferring of the Master Mason degree, expressing satisfaction with the work. During the reremonies Past Master Hail, in behalf of Concordia Lodge, in one of the most interesting speeches ever delivered in Washington Lodge, presented the Masonic Memorial Temple committee with a check for $100 and gave assurance of enthusiastic support by the Masons of Maryland to the memorial undertaking.

At about 10:30 o'clock the visitors under escort of the master, wardens and other officers of Washington and Jackson lodges proceeded to their train which was waiting on Fayette street, and a short while after left for their Maryland homes over the Pennsylvania Railroad, expressing delight with their whole trip.
